PROXIMAL SECURITY NAMES MICHAEL L. SHIRLEY SALES MANAGER

February 2, 2009 (Henderson, Nevada) - Proximal Security announced the addition of Michael L. Shirley to its sales management team as sales manager. Shirley brings with him more than 15 years of experience in the industry.

“My priorities at Proximal Security are to provide stellar customer service and follow-up,” he said. “I look forward to being a formative part of the new company’s growth.”

Prior to joining Proximal, Shirley was a key accounts manager with Tri-Ed Distribution, a distributor of security and alarm systems. He also brings with him experience as the assistant branch manager of Alarmax Distribution's Riverside office, which he expanded significantly before moving on to the company’s Las Vegas office.

Michael received training at the Department of Defense's Naval Air Depot, where he specialized in the upgrade and manufacturing support for the f/a-18's avionics and communication systems. After serving in the United States Marine Corps from 1990-1994, he went on to receive his bachelor's degree in political science from Indiana University in 1999.

Based in Henderson, Nevada with multiple manufacturing plants, Proximal Security (<http://www.proximalsecurity.com>) is a business-to-business company producing and marketing the latest in security and surveillance technology products directly to distributors, security companies and other businesses around the world through its sales team and online catalog. Proximal Security is located at 18 Sunrise Drive, Suite G70, in Henderson, Nevada, 89014 and may be reached at (702) 855-3800.
